The grading of the papers of those who applied for a reassessment of their EPE scores has been finalized and the grades have been revised on the Metu sis. All test takers can now check their grades using the system. If there is no change in your grades, this means your score has not been changed.